THE BELL OF THE ANGELS. (A LEGEND.)

In the depths of that legend dwell. It is said that "In Heaven at twilight A great hell softly swings
And man may listen and hearken
To the wondorful music that rings,
If he puts from his heart's inner chamber
All the passion, pain and strife,
Unattest and many that

Heartache and weary longing That throb in the pulses of life-

Now I thought as I read the story at perhaps the music that fell On the ears of the wondering shepherd Was borne on the sound of that hell. How the angels in transport were ringing.
The bell, and its sound reached the earth,
Whilst the hosts of high Heaven were singing

When Christ the Deliverer cam The song which was sung by the Angels
And the bell's music still is the same.
For I know that our hearts are uplifted
And holiest feelings are stirred

Can such sweet sounds enter therein If the soul be the fountain of malice, Of liatred, of envy, of sin? Oh, no! let us make them the dwelling

Of meckness of patience, of luve.
Let us strive in our liverend our actions.
The truth of our purpose to prove.
Let us spend overy day in the service
Of Jesus, the Muster so dear. Then no matter what happens around us
Our hearts will have nothing to fear.
And then in the glad Christmas senson,
Whilst the song of the Angels we sing.
With our hearts fall of heavenly rapture
We may hear the sweet Angel-bell ring.

What would be thought of a lawyer who would make "Uncle Tom's cabin" the cornerstone of a case to be tried in the courts of the present time? Just about the same that is thought of Morse now.

Chairman Wilson proved his earnestness in pushing the tariff bill by making the very unusual proposition to his colleagues that the Christmas recess be not taken this year, in order that the time which has been unavoidably lost in getting the bill before the House might be made up. While the proposition has been received with considerable favor the difficulty of keeping a quorum here and the certainty that the Republicans would allow nothing to be done without one makes it improbable that it will be carried out. It is no fault of the Democratic members of the Ways and Means committee that the bill is not now before the House; they have worked night and day to overcome the obstacles which have confronted them. Saved Her Life.

lad become possible in spite of the medicines given, I reasoned that such remedies would be of un avail. Having part of a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house, I gave the child three doses, at short intervals, and ant lonsty waited results. From the moment the Pectoral was given, the child's breathing grow easier, and, in a short time, she was sleeping quietly and breathing naturally. The child is alive and well to-day, and I do not lestlate to say that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved her life."

To many thoughtful people, the price of The Forum has hitherto been prohibitory; indeed all the great Reviews have been too high in price for the masses of intelligent readers. But now the number of readers of thoughtful literature—men and women whe wish really to know what is going on in the world outside the narrow limits of particular sects and parties—is great enough in the United States to warrant so revolutionary a reduction in price. The Forum discusses important subjects, but it is not dull. The literature of contemporaneous activity is, in fact, the most interesting of all literature. American citizenship implies that a man shall know the opinions of the foremost men and the latest great achievements in every direction of activity.

🤻 SIZE AND QUALITY UNCHANGED. The Forum is new as cheap as the magazines of mere entertainment. THE CHEAPEST, THE LARGEST, THE BEST, OF THE GREAT REVIEWS.
